

TRAIL BULLY

TrailBully from Kassbohrer. The snowmobile trail groomer that is taking the industry by storm. A rugged chassis and long wheel base with 5 axle independent suspension give the TrailBully plenty of brawn. An intelligent design features automatic load limiting keeping the engine in the proper torque curve thereby minimizing fuel consumption—something worth considering in today's economy. How's that for brains. A super comfortable driver's cabin, high performance rubber X tracks and the All-Way front blade keep the TrailBully ahead of the field.
